From Your Pastor

"Spiritual men, in their distresses, turn at once to prayer, even as the stag when hunted takes to flight. Prayer is a never-failing resort, it is sure to bring a blessing with it. Even apart from the answer of our supplications, the very exercise of prayer is healthy to the man engaged in it. Far be it from me to ever say a word in disparagement of the holy, happy, heavenly exercise of prayer. But beloved, there are times when prayer is not enough—when prayer itself is out of season.

You will think that (is) a hard saying..... but my text (Exodus 14:15) is to the point. Moses prayed that God would deliver His people, but the Lord said to him, "Wherefore cry you unto me?" As much as to say, this is not the time for prayer, it is the time for action. "Speak unto the children of Israel, that they go forward". When we have prayed over a matter to a certain degree, it then becomes sinful to tarry any longer, our plain duty is to carry our desires into action, and having asked God's guidance, and having received divine power from on high, to go at once to our duty without any longer deliberation or delay".

—Charles Spurgeon, "Forward, Forward, Forward" ( Sermon No. 548
