And upon the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Triune God (Matthew 28:19),

We do now, and in the presence of God, His angels, and this assembly, most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another, as one body of Christ.

To contribute cheerfully and regularly (2 Corinthians 9:7), in both financial giving and time (Romans 12:1, 4-8), to the support of the ministry, the expense of the church, the relief of the poor, and the spread of the Gospel throughout the nations.

We engage to maintain family discipleship and devotion (Proverbs 22:6); to provide Biblical education to our children (Ephesians 6:4); to make disciples of kindred, acquaintances, and neighbors, both near and far (Acts 1:8, Romans 10:14-15).

To avoid conformity to the world (Romans 12:2, John 15:19); to be just in our dealings (Proverbs 11:1, 18), faithful in our engagements (Luke 16:10), bearing the fruit of the Spirit. (Galatians 5:22-23, Philippians 4:8);

To avoid all gossip, unwholesome speech, and unjust anger (Ephesians 4:26-29).

To lay aside the deeds of darkness and put on the armor of light, avoiding drunkenness, sexual immorality, strife, and jealousy (Romans 13:12-13); to be zealous in our efforts to advance the Kingdom of our Lord, Jesus Christ (Matthew 10:7).

We further engage to watch over ourselves, and each other in brotherly love (Matthew 7:3-5); to bear the burdens of one another to fulfill the law of Christ (Galatians 6:2).
